

The history of

Fill in the missing verbs in past simple! For help listen again CB p.39/ex.8 ↩

Dr John Pemberton _____ Coca-Cola. Dr Pemberton _____ a pharmacist in Atlanta, Georgia, in the USA. He _____ the first Coca-Cola there in 1886. Dr Pemberton _____ the drink, but he _____ the name. His assistant, Frank Robinson, _____ the name Coca-Cola. And he _____ the words for Dr Pemberton too. We use almost the same _____ famous Coca-Cola design today.

Dr Pemberton _____ very much of his new drink and after three or four years, he _____ his business to a businessman in Atlanta. His name _____ Asa Candler. Mr Candler _____ the modern Coca-Cola company in 1892. He _____ a very good businessman. After only three years, millions of people in every state in the USA _____ and _____ Coca-Cola.

At first, people _____ Coca-Cola in bottles. They _____ the drink in glasses, usually in pharmacies. The famous Coca-Cola bottle _____ in 1916. Of course, Coca-Cola bottles are almost the same today.

In the 1920s and 30s, the Coca-Cola company _____ selling the drink in other countries.

In the 1950s, 60s and 70s, the Coca-Cola company _____ selling its drinks in lots of countries around the world. And it _____ making new products. It _____ the first Coca-Cola cans in 1963.

In 1982 _____ Diet Coke. And so on. Today, the company sells its products in over 200 countries, from China to Canada and Australia to Austria.

Answer in full sentences:

Do you like Coca-Cola? Why? Why not?

How many bottles or cans do you drink a week?
